First Hero All-Star Basketball
Games To Be Played At O'Hara

Tip-off for the first annual Delaware County Hero Scholarship basketball games will be Friday, April 9, at Cardinal O'Hara High School when two teams of senior girls meet at 6:30 PM.

The all-star boys senior teams will meet at 8:30 PM following the girls match at the high school, 1701 S. Sproul Road, Springfield. Admission of $5 each is payable at the game. Police officers or members of police families will serve as referees.

County Councilman Thomas J. McGarrigle said the doubleheader organized by a committee headed by Collingdale Police Chief Robert W. Adams is a welcome addition to the roster of events which help support the Hero Scholarship Fund of Delaware County.

More than 50 players from 28 parochial, private and public high schools which serve the county will meet in the games to be coached by O'Hara boys coach Tim Kelly, for the East boys team; O'Hara girls coach Linus McGinty, for the East Girls team; Penncrest High School boys coach Mike Doyle, for the West Boys team; and Springfield High School girls coach Kim Smith, for the West Girls team.

The Hero Scholarship Fund was founded in 1977 by County Council at the request of two Upper Darby Township Councilmembers, John Clark and Rudolph D'Alesio, to provide educational scholarships for the children of police, fire fighters and emergency medical personnel who die in line of duty, McGarrigle said.
