SEASONAL FLU SHOTS IN LIBRARIES
--Shots are Free with Medicare Part B--

Media, PA – The Delaware County Library System (DCLS), an Agency of County Government, and Maxim Health Systems invite you to get your seasonal flu shot @ your local library.

The cost is $30 per shot. It is free for those who have only Medicare Part B or who have Aetna insurance. The cost may be reimbursable from other insurance companies, including Keystone 65.

Ten DCLS member libraries will offer flu shots this fall. On Sept. 21st from 1-3 p.m. the Helen Kate Furness Free Library located at 100 N. Providence Road in Wallingford will kick-off flu shots in the library. The Ridley Township Public Library located at 100 East MacDade Blvd in Folsom is up next on Sept 28th from 4-6 p.m. On Oct. 1st from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. the Aston Public Library at 3270 Concord Road in Aston will be giving flu shots. The Glenolden Library at 211 S. Llanwellyn Ave. in Glenolden will be hosting Maxim Health Systems flu shot clinic on Oct. 3rd from 2:30 - 4:30 p.m. On Oct. 5th two libraries will be having flu shot clinics: Swarthmore Public Library located at 121 Park Ave. in Swarthmore will be having a clinic from 2-4p.m. and from 10 a.m. - noon the Middletown Free Library at 21 N. Pennell Road in Media will be hosting a flu shot clinic. The Marple Public Library at 2599 Sproul Road in Broomall will be giving flu shots on Oct. 12th from 11 a.m. -1 p.m. Oct. 19th the Radnor Memorial Library located at 114 West Wayne Ave. in Wayne will be hosting Maxim Health Systems flu clinic from 3-5 p.m. Also on Oct. 19th the Norwood Public Library at 513 Welcome Ave. in Norwood will be hosting a flu shot clinic from 4-6 p.m. The last day to get your flu shot in the library will be Oct. 25th at the Rachel Kohl Community Library on 687 Smithbridge Road in Glen Mills. This last clinic will be from 3-5 p.m.
