Women "Pioneers" Honored

Caption: The Delaware County Women's Commission honored two pioneers in the field of women's rights and accomplishments – the late Elizabeth Price, the first executive director of the Delaware County Bar Association, and Elaine Humme, co-founder of the Domestic Abuse Project. The women and their families were honored at the Women's Commission Hall of Fame and Women of Achievement Awards held March 8 at the Towne House Restaurant. Shown at the event are, from left, Delaware County Council Vice-Chair Christine Fizzano Cannon, William Price accepting the Hall of Fame award on behalf of his wife, Elaine Humme with her Women of Achievement Award, and Women's Commission members Denise Gallagher and Theresa Agostinelli. For more information about the Women's Commission visit www.co.delaware.pa.us.
