Celebrating Delaware County's Rich History

Delaware County Council welcomed members from the Delaware County Historical Society and members from various historical and preservation societies from around the county to recognize September as History Month in Delaware County during its Aug. 17 meeting. The month is dedicated to shining a spotlight on the county's rich history. Council also announced these groups have partnered to host the "Life and Times History Tour" on Sept. 24 and 25, a free historian guided tour of 10 historic sites in Delco.
