Weatherization and tax assistance programs
Can help low- to moderate-income families

Ed Coleman, center back, Director of the Community Action Agency of Delaware County (CAADC), teamed up with County Council Chairman Jack Whelan and Council Vice Chair Christine Fizzano Cannon to announce two programs that can help low- to moderate-income families: Weatherization Assistance and Income Tax Assistance.

Coleman was joined by three CAADC workers, front from left, Tina Mason, Eileen McCoy and Courtney McKeever in presenting information on these programs to Delaware County employees and County residents at the Government Center.

For information about the Weatherization Assistance Program call CAADC at (610) 521-8770.

For information about the free Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program, call Jennifer Levy at (610) 891-6327 or Kristin Claypoole at (610) 891-6325.
