MEDIA ALERT: INVITATION TO COVER

Delaware County Women’s Commission to recognize women leaders

For Women’s History Month, the Delaware County Women’s Commission and Delaware County Council will recognize women who have profoundly influenced women in the community. Every year the National Women’s History Project - the leading organization that successfully lobbied Congress for the creation of Women’s History Month - offers a premise in which to base these honors.

This year’s theme is, “Nevertheless She Persisted: Women Who Fight All Forms of Discrimination Against Women,” will be highlighted by honoring women who have successfully challenged the role of women through their own success, determination, leadership and advocacy. Linda Houldin, a longtime Newtown Square resident, will be posthumously inducted into the Hall of Fame for her many contributions to the Delaware County community. Three women will be presented with the Woman of Achievement Award, including Cheryl Colleluori, president of HEADStrong and Nick’s House for cancer patients, Dr. L. Joy Gates Black, president of Delaware County Community College, and Mares Stellfox, an auto racing champion.

For sponsorship opportunities, tickets and more information about the Delaware County Women’s Commission awards breakfast, please visit, www.co.delaware.pa.us/womencom.
